Acknowledgement & Workshop Suitability

Getting the Love You Want is an educational and experiential couples workshop. It is not individual or couples therapy.

Most exercises are completed privately with your partner. You will have the opportunity to volunteer for a demonstration. You will not be required to disclose personal relationship information to the group, and group sharing is optional.

The workshop is designed for couples who are both attending voluntarily, feel safe participating together, and are willing to engage respectfully with one another.

If either of you has concerns about relationship safety, family violence, coercive control, or whether attending a couples workshop together is appropriate, please contact Philipa before registering so we can discuss whether the workshop is suitable for you.

- ☐ We have both read and understood the information above.
- ☐ We are both choosing to attend the workshop voluntarily.
- ☐ We both feel safe attending and participating together.
